PANEL | OPTIMIZE YOUR ACCREDITATION RELATIONSHIP

FACILITATED BY: Debra Stinchcomb, MBA, BSN, RN, CASC

Deemed status, provisional status, and partial compliance—navigating the complexities of accreditation can be overwhelming. This session aims to clarify these concepts by exploring four prominent ASC Accrediting Organizations (AOs): AAAHC, TJC, Quad A, and ACHC. Experts from each AO will join us for a panel discussion to address your pressing questions about standards and surveyors, including: Where can you find clarification on specific standards? How are surveyors trained, and what qualifications do they require? What is the process for developing and approving standards? This session will provide valuable insights to help you understand your accreditation options and optimize your relationship with your chosen AO. Don't miss this opportunity to empower your ASC with the knowledge needed to navigate the accreditation landscape confidently.

BENCHMARKING EXCELLENCE: ASSESSING YOUR ASC'S OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

Regina Boore, MS, BSN, RN, CASC Nancy Stephens

This interactive presentation will guide participants through a comprehensive evaluation of their center's operational performance, benchmarked against key industry standards. Attendees will complete a hands-on assessment, tailored to the ASC nurse leader, enabling them to rate and reflect on their center's performance across various operational metrics. The session aims to highlight areas for improvement while fostering a culture of continuous enhancement. By the end, nurse leaders will walk away with actionable insights to elevate operational effectiveness, ultimately driving better outcomes for both staff and patients.

THE JOURNEY TO QAPI/IPC MASTERY: NEWBIES VS. GROUPIES

April McElheny, MBA, MSN, RN, CASC, CIC

All ASCs are required to have Quality Assurance Performance Improvement (QAPI) and Infection Prevention and Control (IPC) programs. Whether you're a novice Newbie learning the basics or an experienced Groupie looking for renewed passion, this session is designed to meet you where you are on your professional journey to QAPI/IPC mastery. Through this course, you will expand your program's findings beyond the walls of your ASC and uncover how rigorous QAPI/IPC practices can positively impact your broader community. Prepare to take your knowledge and skills to the next level—you might be surprised by the far-reaching benefits of your dedication to quality improvement and infection prevention.

KEYNOTE COMEDY HOUR | THE POWER OF HUMOR FOR NURSE LEADERS

Join Nancy Norton, RN, CHP (Certified Humor Professional) for an energizing and fast-paced session exploring the transformative power of humor in leadership, relationships, and personal well-being. Backed by evidence-based studies and enriched with real-life stories, this session offers uplifting antidotes to burnout and stress in the demanding world of healthcare.

Nancy will also facilitate interactive peer-to-peer sharing, encouraging participants to reflect on moments when humor has helped them, or their teams persevere. Discover how humor can be an essential tool for boosting morale, fostering resilience, and leading with positivity in challenging times.

ANATOMY OF A DEPOSITION

Debra Stinchcomb, MBA, BSN, RN, CASC

Will Miller

This informative session offers an in-depth exploration of the deposition process from both nursing and legal perspectives, with real-life examples to provide practical insights. Participants will learn the crucial steps to take when served with a subpoena and gain a clear understanding of the deposition process from start to finish. The presentation will equip attendees with essential skills and knowledge to effectively prepare for a deposition, ensuring they can approach the experience with confidence and professionalism. Don't miss this opportunity to enhance your understanding of legal proceedings and protect your organization.

PANEL | NAVIGATING HR MANAGEMENT IN THE ASC: INSIGHTS FROM NURSE LEADERS

FACILITATED BY: Regina Boore, MS, BSN, RN, CASC

This dynamic and engaging session features a diverse panel of ASC nurse leaders as they explore the complexities of human resource management in the ASC environment. Our panelists will share their unique experiences, discuss the challenges they've encountered, and present effective strategies for managing human resources in a fast-paced healthcare setting. Gain valuable knowledge and practical insights to enhance your leadership skills, improve workforce management, and create a thriving team culture in your own ASC. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from experienced leaders and elevate your approach to HR management.

MEDICAL STAFF CREDENTIALING: WHAT'S THE BIG DEAL?

Vanessa Sindell, MSN, BSN, RN, CAIP

Crissy Benze, MSN, BSN, RN

Medical staff credentialing remains one of the top 10 cited deficiencies by CMS and accrediting organizations, and many ASCs still lack a formal peer review process. Managing the necessary documentation and ensuring medical staff participation can feel like a daunting task. This presentation will offer a comprehensive overview of specific requirements for credentialing and peer review, providing practical strategies for implementing these processes effectively. Attendees will gain valuable insights to streamline credentialing, foster accountability, and maintain compliance, ultimately ensuring their ASC meets regulatory standards with confidence.

WHILE YOU'VE BEEN WORKING...REGULATORY UPDATE TRIVIA

Staying current with the constant changes in regulations, standards, and best practices that govern the ASC world can feel like a never-ending race. Before you get dizzy trying to catch up, join us for a fun and interactive session designed to bring you up to speed on the most important updates from the past year. In this fast-paced game-style presentation, we'll review key regulatory changes and developments that you may have missed while you were busy doing the hard work of running your ASC. Get ready to test your knowledge, learn what's new, and leave prepared to navigate the evolving regulatory landscape with confidence!

WORKSHOP | INNER SPARK, OUTER SHINE: LEADING FROM WITHIN TO LEAD OTHERS

Laura Baldwin

Today's leaders are faced with an onslaught of challenges, typically putting their own wellness as a bottom priority. Understanding influencers that positively or negatively impact energy is essential to helping leaders be at their best. This interactive session will introduce you to the concepts of Energy Leadership and increase your awareness of six wellness influencers, as well as help you identify strategies that can positively impact you, your team, and your organization.

BONUS WORKSHOP | PRACTICING PLAYFUL PRESENCE

Join award-winning comedian Nancy Norton, RN, CHP (Certified Humor Professional) for a lively and playful bonus session designed to help you lighten up and lead with more levity. Through experiential learning and improv, this session will guide you into the present moment STAT —where all the joy in life (and humor) happens naturally.

You don't need to be funny or try to be funny to invite more playful presence and joy into your life. Participants will engage in team-building improv games that foster creativity, connection, and spontaneous laughter. Get ready to share some laughs, build camaraderie, and leave with strategies to bring more levity into your leadership and everyday life!
